Personality

Liz Murray is portrayed as a determined, hardworking and resilient person who refuses to let her difficult circumstances define her. She is smart and creative, with a talent for writing and a love of learning.

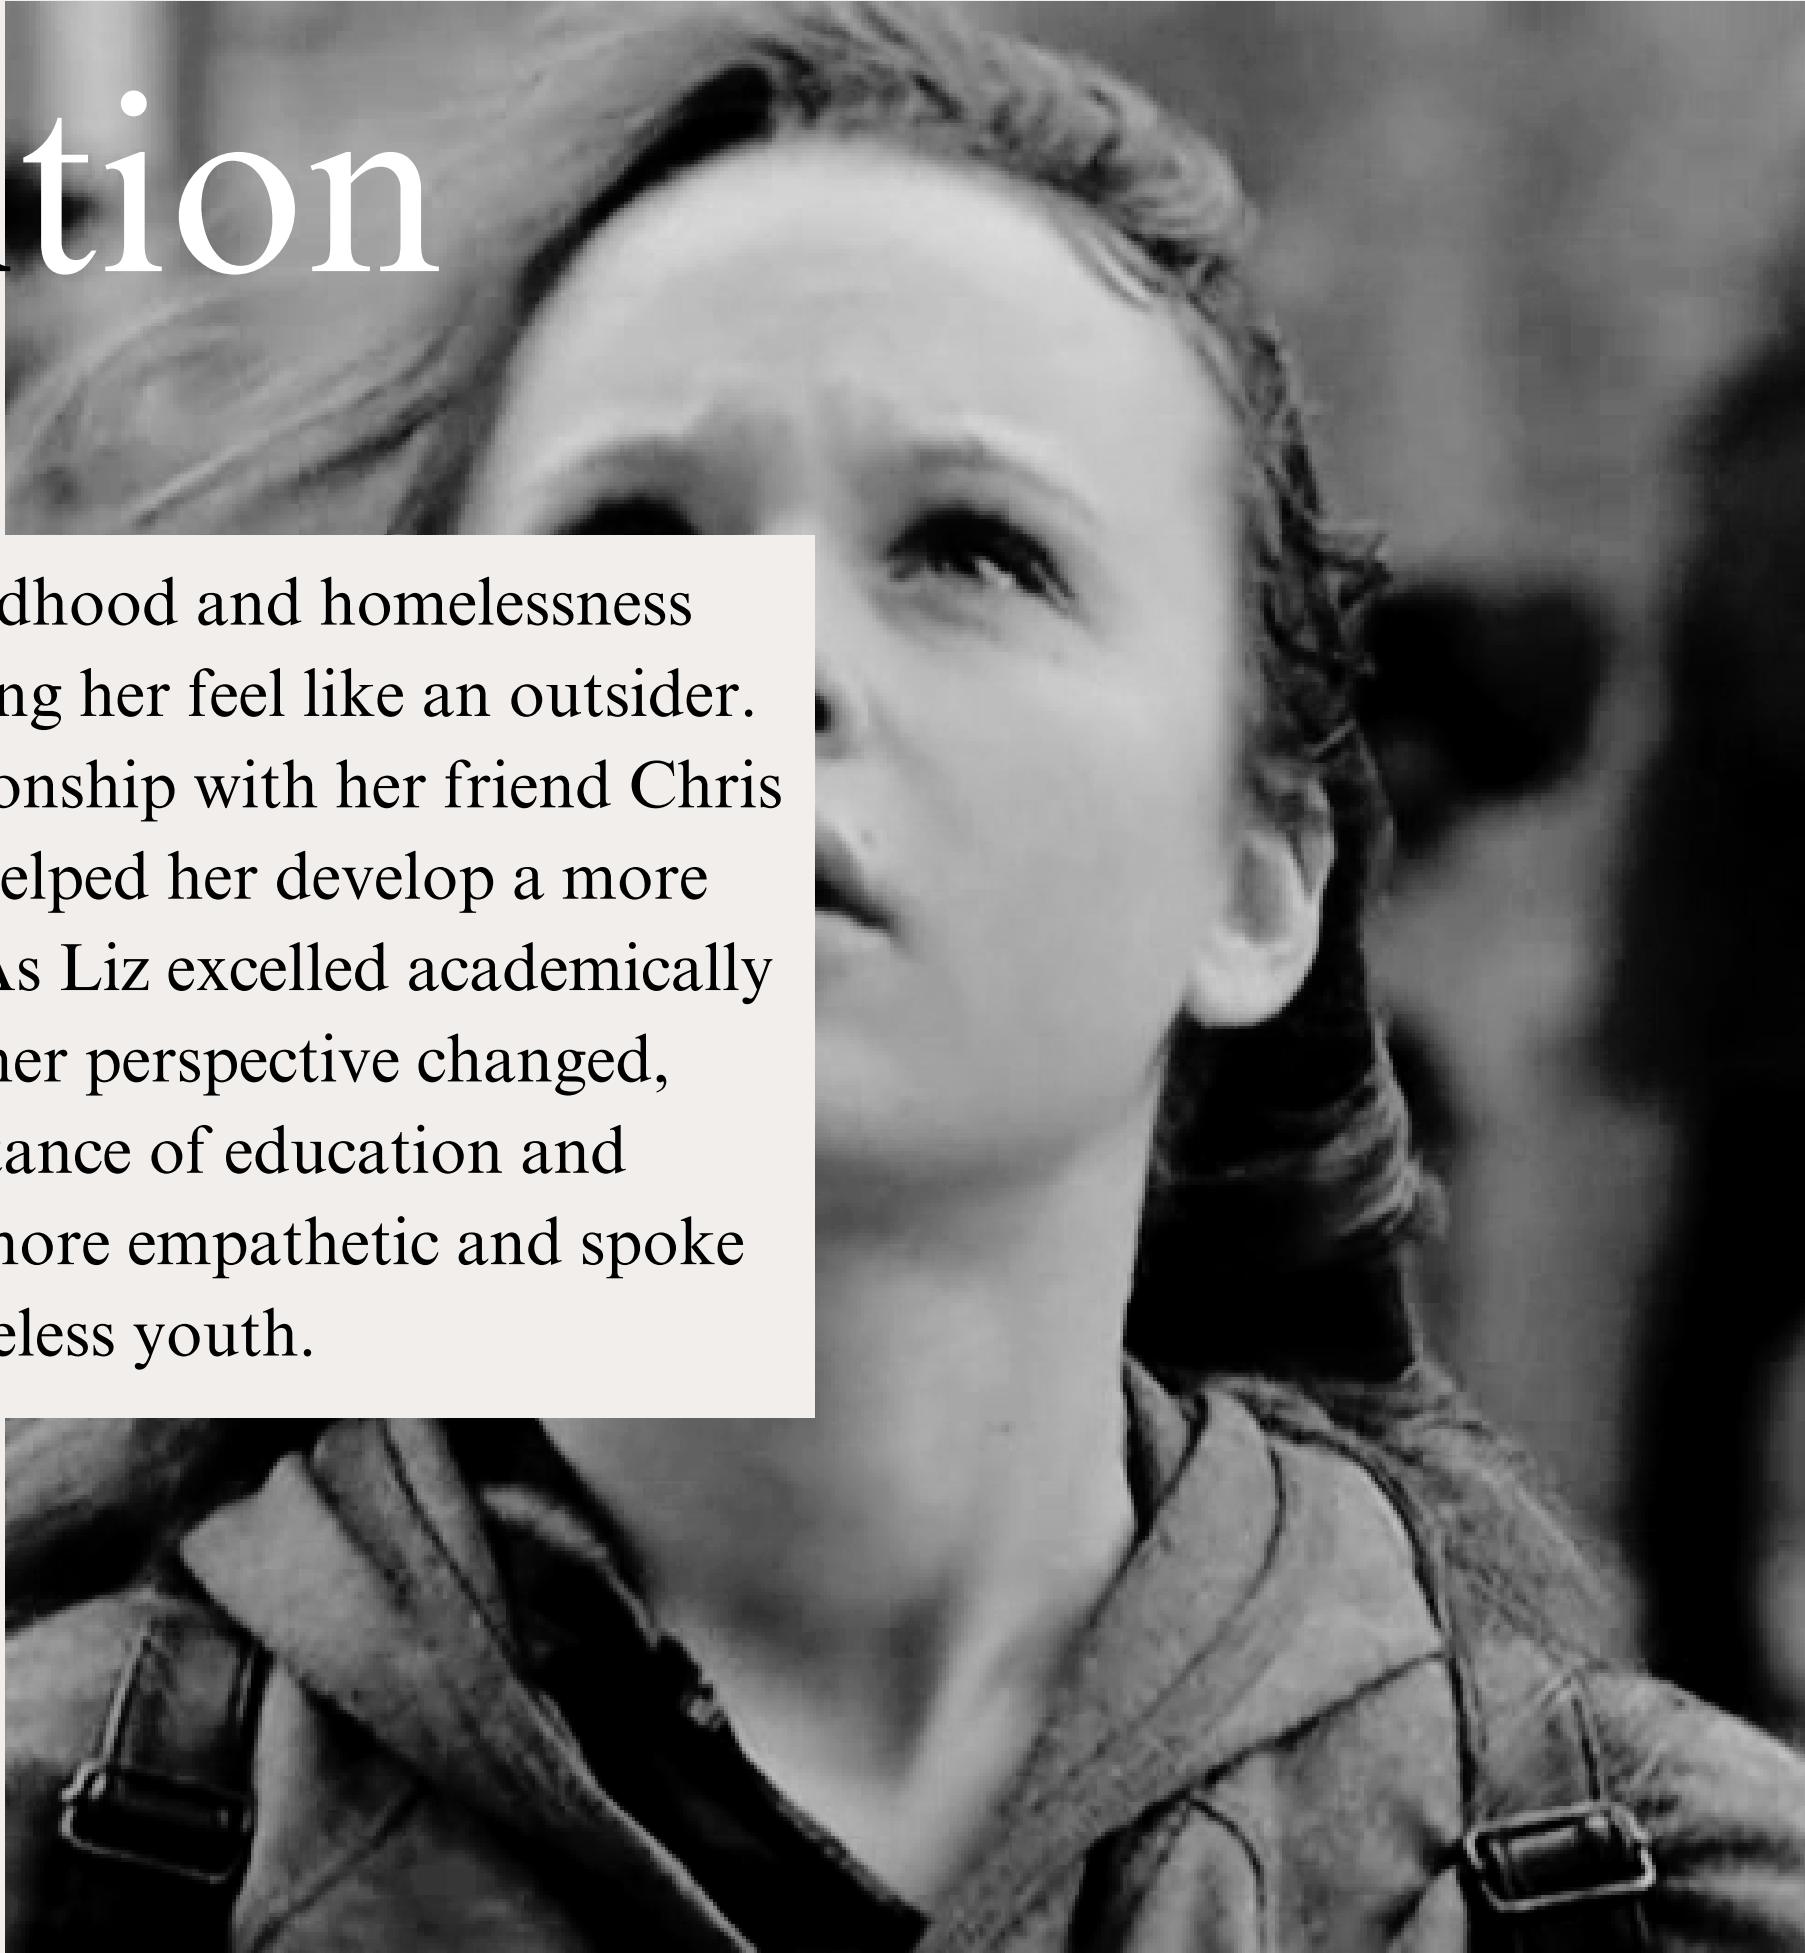

Despite major obstacles, including homelessness and the loss of her parents, she remains true to her goals.

Cognition

Liz Murray's difficult childhood and homelessness shaped her self-image, making her feel like an outsider. However, a supportive relationship with her friend Chris and teacher Mr. Boswell helped her develop a more positive outlook on things. As Liz excelled academically and in her personal life, her perspective changed, emphasizing the importance of education and perseverance. She became more empathetic and spoke out for homeless youth.

Liz's life can be divided into three turning points, phases. Childhood, boarding school, mother's death. And at all stages, most often she experienced fear. At first, since childhood, although she loved her mother, she was afraid of her. This can be seen in the scene when the mother took the last money for food when she was only 8 years old.

Emotion

She did not know how to behave in society, she thought that she was different from others. Once in a boarding school she was bullied by others, so she chose life as a homeless one. When she was reunited with her mother, her mother was ill and she feared losing her. After death, she wanted to change her fate. The fear of becoming like her parents pushed her to study, to strive for a different life.

Lisa's emotional state

Liz Murray was always reserved no matter what events happened in her life. In stressful situations, she didn't get hysterical. She looked at everything and everyone with understanding. Liz has emotional intelligence. She understands herself and knows how to convince others. The ability to manage your emotions is a special trait of Liz. At first, Liz didn't know how to contact people, but when she communicated with people, she got along well with them. Also, people listened to her and believed her words. Such skills and abilities are present in it due to emotional intelligence.

LIZ'S FAMILY HAS AFFECTED HER SINCE CHILDHOOD, AT THE BEGINNING SHE DID NOT GET ANY PARENTS LOVE, HER PARENTS CARED MORE ABOUT DRUGS AND SURVIVING THIS DAY THAN A CHILD. IN THE MOVIE WE CAN SEE THAT BOTH FATHER AND GRANDFATHER WERE NOT INTERESTED ABOUT HER WELL BEING AND HER SISTER DID NOT KEPT IN TOUCH WITH HER SISTER.

LIZ'S FAMILY CONDITION AND HER MOTHER DEATH WERE MAIN FACTORS THAT AFFECTED HER PERSONAL GROWTH. SOCIAL ENVIRONMENT AND FRIENDS INCLUDED OTHER HOMELESS TEENAGERS AND HER NEIGHBOR EVE. THEY GAVE HER A SENSE OF BELONGINGNESS AND FRIENDS. WHILE THE TEACHER FROM PRIVATE SCHOOL GAVE HER A NECESSARY ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND GUIDANCE.

LIZ MURRAY'S AIM, MOTIVE AND MOTIVATION FOR LIFE

THE FILM REVOLVES AROUND THE LIFE OF LIZ MURRAY, WHO WANTS TO BREAK OUT OF THE VICIOUS CYCLE OF POVERTY. HER GOAL IS TO GET AN EDUCATION AND CREATE A COMFORTABLE LIFE FOR HERSELF. SHE IS DRIVEN BY A DEEP DESIRE TO RISE ABOVE CIRCUMSTANCES, ACHIEVE PERSONAL SUCCESS AND MAKE A POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION TO SOCIETY. SHE REALIZED THAT EDUCATION IS HER WAY TO A BRIGHTER FUTURE. SHE WANTS NOT ONLY TO FIND HAPPINESS HERSELF, BUT ALSO TO HELP OTHERS AND MOTIVATE THEM TO WORK, REACHING OUT FOR KNOWLEDGE. SHE WANTS TO SHOW THAT REGARDLESS OF ORIGIN, POSITION AND STATUS IN SOCIETY, YOU CAN MAKE YOUR DREAM COME TRUE, THE MAIN THING IS TO WORK HARD.

Components of mind

Throughout the film, Liz Murray faces difficult choices and a combination of desire, choice and morality helps overcome these difficulties, especially when she strives to get into the best university. Her ego (choice) helps her to be more confident in herself and her abilities and achieve what she wants and make difficult choices no matter what. Having literally nothing, of course, doubts arose, but the superego (morality) makes itself felt and indicates that there is still no other way, the only way is forward. Id (desires) is strongly expressed when she finally wants to get out of her homeless life and study at the best university. Such things constantly push Liz Murray to look for new opportunities and reach heights.
